

Study of Stellar Structure in Modified Theory of Gravity

Arfa Waseem *

Department of Mathematics, University of the Punjab, Quaid-e-Azam Campus, Lahore-54590, Pakistan.

Abstract

We discuss the construction of stellar structure equations corresponding to anisotropic matter configuration in the background of modified theory of gravity. We formulate the modified field equations by considering a particular form of metric potentials and calculate the values of unknown parameters through matching conditions. We analyze the physical viability as well as stability of stellar structure via graphical analysis of matter variables, energy conditions and speed of sound.

*arfawaseem.pu@gmail.com