

Global existence of solutions to the spherically symmetric Einstein-scalar field system

João L. Costa and Filipe C. Mena

Abstract

We consider the Einstein massless scalar field system with a positive cosmological constant and study the Cauchy problem for characteristic initial data given on a null cone. We prove that this system has a global unique solution which decays asymptotically in time, for small data.